

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

FEBRUARY 24, 1845.

Submitted; and ordered to be printed.

Mr. BATES made the following

REPORT:

The Committee on Pensions, to whom the petition of the heirs of Moses White was referred, report:

This is an application by heirs for a supposed balance due their ancestor as an invalid soldier of the Revolution. His pension, as such invalid soldier, was deducted from his annuity under the act of 1828, until the act of 1830 directed otherwise. The deduction, when made, was according to law. The act of 1830 was prospective. The committee see no ground upon which an arrear of pension can be claimed. A grant of like kind was made to heirs of Richard Anderson, but the committee think it was made without due consideration, and that it is a precedent which ought not to be established: Wherefore,

Resolved, That the prayer of the petition ought not to be granted.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

Presented, and ordered to be printed

Mr. HARRIS made the following

REPORT

The Committee on Military Affairs, to whom the petition of the Whitcomb & Co. was referred,

This is an application by the Whitcomb & Co. for a refund of the tax as an invalid soldier of the Revolution. The petition, as filed, stated that the soldier was discharged from his service under the act of 1802, and the act of 1800 directed otherwise. The discharge when made was under the act of 1802, and the act of 1800 was prospective. The discharge was made upon a claim of honor, and the act of 1802 was not applicable.
The act of 1802 was not applicable, and the act of 1800 was not applicable.
The act of 1802 was not applicable, and the act of 1800 was not applicable.
The act of 1802 was not applicable, and the act of 1800 was not applicable.
The act of 1802 was not applicable, and the act of 1800 was not applicable.
